Waz and Emma WELCOME you to The Eight Bells Bed and Breakfast where our aim is to make your stay with us a memorable one.

Location

The Eight Bells Bed and Breakfast is a beautifully restored character cottage set between The Eight Bells Pub and St Mary Magdalene Church.

St Mary Magdalene's is in the Early English style with suggestions of Saxon and Norman influence in the architecture.

The nave and chancel date from the middle of the 12th century; the 'unusual' tower was built in 1533-1536 at the expense of John Bolne. It boasts the oldest peal of eight bells in Sussex, the earliest being dated 1592.

The Eight Bells Pub and Restaurant is but a few feet away, affording a comfortable and welcoming place to take breakfast. Lunch and evening meals are available and it is strongly advised that you book in advance as it can get extremely busy, especially at weekends.

We are situated conveniently just off the A272 and A23 within easy reach of Brighton and Gatwick. For detailed location information please visit us at www.theeightbellsbolney.co.uk or visit Google Maps.
